DiamAndes de Uco Cabernet-Sauvignon 2018

Valle de Uco - Mendoza - Argentina

PRESS RELEASE

Planted back in 1999, close to the beginning of the Clos de los Siete project in Vista Flores, this is a Cabernet-Sauvignon with good depth and concentration. Modern, scented and sweetly oaked in 30% new wood, with cassis and blueberry fruit, supple tannins and a fresh finish.

A straightforward cabernet with currant and dark-berry character, as well as sweet earth. Medium body. Solid core of fruit and a flavorful finish. Drink now.

Deep crimson. Both ripe and frank. Not at all heavy and more herbal than blackcurrant. Serious wine for the money. Again, the tannins are pretty pronounced. Still quite youthful. GV
